

CITY LAW COLLEGE, DIMAPUR

PROSPECTUS 2025-2026

OVERVIEW

City Law College, Dimapur, established in 1994 under the motto Justice for Equality, is located at Burma Camp, Dimapur, Nagaland – 797112, opposite Veterinary Colony and near NCRC Sumi Church and Lungmen Fellowship. The institution is permanently affiliated with Nagaland University since 2009 and has been approved by the Bar Council of India since 2002. It is governed by the City Law College Welfare Society, which is overseen by a seven-member board led by a chairman-cum-Administrator.

The college was founded with the vision of making quality legal education accessible within Nagaland, particularly for students unable to pursue law outside the state. Over the past three decades, its alumni have established themselves in various roles, including the judiciary, advocacy, chamber practice, academia, and government service.

STUDENT LIFE AND SOCIETIES

At City Law College, student life is enriched through active participation in various societies, clubs, and committees, offering a vibrant and supportive environment for personal and professional growth.

STUDENTS' UNION

The Students' Union is a democratically elected body responsible for fostering a sense of unity and belonging among students. The Union organises key events such as the annual Freshers' and Farewell functions, Sports Week, general meetings, and the much-anticipated annual picnic. These events encourage camaraderie, leadership, and holistic development among students.

CLUBS AND COMMITTEES

- Anti-Bullying & Anti-Ragging Committee: This committee enforces the college's zero tolerance policy towards bullying and ragging. It actively addresses incidents of student and workplace harassment, ensuring a safe and inclusive campus environment.
- Red Ribbon Club: Dedicated to HIV prevention and awareness, the Red Ribbon Club conducts various initiatives to educate students and promote healthy practices.
- Internal Complaints Committee – Anti-Sexual Harassment Policy: The Internal Complaints Committee is tasked with upholding the Anti-Sexual Harassment Policy, providing a confidential platform for addressing grievances and promoting a respectful atmosphere.
- Green Initiative (Eco-Club): The Eco-Club is committed to environmental stewardship. It organises monthly activities aimed at enhancing campus sanitation and raising environmental consciousness among students.
- Evangelical union (EU): The Evangelical Union brings together students for fellowship and outreach, promoting spiritual growth and community service through its various programmes.
- Legal Aid Clinic: Through faculty-led initiatives, the Legal Aid Clinic engages students in community service and legal literacy programmes, fostering a spirit of service and advocacy.
- NSS Unit: The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit involves students in a range of service-oriented and civic responsibility activities, encouraging them to contribute positively to society.
- Editorial Board: The College Magazine Editorial Board offers students a platform to express creativity and share insights. Through the publication of the college magazine, the board provides opportunities for students to contribute articles, stories, and reports, enhancing their communication skills and fostering a vibrant literary culture.

- Students' Grievances Cell: This cell provides structured mechanisms for dialogue and the resolution of student concerns, ensuring that every student's voice is heard and addressed.

POLICIES AND CODES

- Anti-ragging and Anti-bullying: The college maintains a strict zero tolerance policy against ragging and bullying. Proactive awareness programmes and swift mechanisms for redressal are in place to uphold a safe environment.
